Special School Placement Scheme 2018

School has joined the “Special School Placement Scheme 2018” that organized by the “Department of Special Education and Counselling” run by “The Education University of Hong Kong”. The main aim of the scheme is to let pre-service teachers understand more about students with mild intellectual disabilities. Three pre-service teachers will join the scheme this year. The details are listed as follows:

Date : 16th April, 2018 to 7th May, 2018

Class involved : P6, S1 and S4 (on need basis)

Participated pre-service teachers and their electives:

1. Ms Wo Yuen Ting (Mathematics, Special Education)
2. Ms Yu Ho Shan (Chinese Language, Counselling)
3. Mr Ng Chun Leung (Chinese Language, Counselling)

Placement duty : 1. Through lessons observation and interviews with teachers, other professional staffs in school, pre-service teachers can know more about students with special needs.
2. With the guidance of mentors, pre-service teachers will learn how to manage the lessons and arrange learning activities.

Remark:

It is hoped that with working opportunities, pre-service teacher can be equipped with skills and experiences in teaching students with special educational needs. School will encourage them to meet students, well participate in school events and activities during the placement.
